These Prices (deduced upon the supposition that the dividends on the different Stocks are all payable at the same time) must be subject to some variation in favour of those Stocks upon which the Dividends soonest become due: for instance, a person making a purchase in September, had better buy into the new 3 per cents at 93 than into the $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cents at $77\frac{1}{2}$, because the Dividends on the former Stock become due in October, while those on the latter will not become due until the January following.—Nor must it be forgotten, that the possibility of a Reduction of Interest in some of these Securities, and of the paying off of others, considerably affect their Prices in the Market.

1. When there has been no particular storm about the time of the Spring equinox (March 21),—if a storm arise from the east on or before that day, or if a storm from any point of the compass arise near a week after the equinox, then, in either of these cases the succeeding summer is generally DRY, four times in five.
2. But if a storm arise from the S. W. or W. S. W. on or just before the Spring equinox, then the Summer following is generally WET, five times in six.

Monday	Sept 18	Left in the morning early - and after a rather tedious journey by the Great Western by Broun, from - Givoli - to Weymouth - where Mrs George & Riege were waiting at the station for me. Their pretty - clean and comfortable little house Weymouth seems such a nice cheerful, sunny place - The weather was not very favorable for out door excursions - Still we managed to go to Wight - whence we had a fine view towards Portsmouth on one side towards the West Coast on the other. Riege's house is in Melcombe Regis - the midland part of Weymouth. We crossed over an old bridge to the original little town. Introduced to a Mr & Mrs Denning - who seem very nice people - Miss Denning's venture out - and I worked a little at the Cecilia. We celebrated tea - George's pretty and happily for me. May God bless the two. - Since then letters of Abeline, Riege & Frank (just arrived in time) Riege is going on very nicely - The weather being quite temperate we did not go out. I took a bath - and at 4.50. set out to town, where I reached about half past 10.00 by the South Western - It passed through Mansford - Recollections of 1855. No great news, and a lot of my work. In returning I forked a letter - of Miss Davis, but as she did not make my visit pressing I postponed remaining in London. Dined at home - Letter of Frank Boudan - much more satisfactory. There seems to have been a total cessation between him and Abeline. Derwenton of Edinburgh and Lady Dring. Emma (sister of Lady Agatha York) dined with Wilton at the Wood. Ann and Agatha had paid a visit to Mrs Wilton at her office - in St. James's Street. D. D. of our temporary home. Sunday has a place with £30 at Leamington. Dined at lunch - with Charlotte, Peter, Nicola - Miss Krebs & Mr. Henry Miss Jarrett, Davison, Ethelard Edwards, Botherham & Tom. Higher - Bonyaw and later - They have a nice home - and Jarrett has made a Capital Collection of Chinese - porcelains, in a small party taken from the Larmonia Palace at Lichfield. -

Dear Niece very busy - I took a Bath, a little stroll with Georgy and at 5.20, returned by Mr. Great, Modern to London, where I arrived about a quarter to twelve o'clock, finishing a most eventful year for myself in becoming solitude - With the exception of my financial status not being satisfactory I can look back to the ^{of my life} past year as one of the happiest. The marriage of my daughter Georgy with the Man of her choice and who I am sure will do all in his power to make her life - an uninterrupted series of quiet, content and joyful days would be sufficient - but my professional career reached no doubt its climax by the successful production of my St.
Cecilia. - The removal of my dear Adeline to Stuttgart, the improvement in her darling Boy is another source of pleasure. - Friend, marriage, and now Alice's health are certainly drawbacks - but altogether I have no reason to complain - and must endeavour to employ the short span of life left to me - to - if possible - my advancement in art and for the benefit of my children. Gustave Benedict settled now with Mr. Rudolph in Stuttgart would be a nice letter (185 Basle) and and so do Adeline, Hugo, Georgy & my dear old sister, who sent me a beautiful
